Scholastic Surf Series
Ventura-Morro Bay High School
November 10, 2024-- Emma Wood

The SSS high school division Ventura to Morro Bay's third event of the season was held at Emma Wood Beach. It was another amazing day with perfect weather. It was sunny and about 70 degrees with glassy conditions all day. There was a decent size north west swell that made for some fun head high surf. With not very many corners, the highschoolers still managed to make it look fun. In the end it was the local team Ventura A who got the highest team point total with 78 points defeating Morro Bay with 53. Thanks to all the parents and coaches. Since this is our last event in 2024 for the Ventura to Morro Bay Section, we wish you all a very happy Holiday Season. See you in the New Year. Cheers from the Scholastic Surf Series.
